A truly idyllic setting

Brightling Park lies in an elevated position in the heart of the High Weald with spectacular views over the East Sussex countryside. This marquee venue, set in over 1000 acres of parkland and forest, is a truly idyllic setting for your wedding reception and offers a wealth of picturesque backdrops for your special photographs.

The village of Brightling, only 5 minutes from the A21, is famous for its collection of follies built by Brightling Park's eccentric Victorian squire, John "Mad Jack" Fuller. These include the Observatory, the Needle, the Sugarloaf and the Temple.

Brightling church is a stone's throw from Brightling Park and can be reached by a short walk through the churchyard. You'll pass the unusual pyramid-shaped tomb of John Fuller, which makes an interesting talking point for your guests and an unusual backdrop for photographs. For information on holding your wedding ceremony at Brightling church, please contact Rev. Stephen France - telephone 01435 882301 or email revfrance@tiscali.co.uk.

There are many marquee options for your wedding reception, whether you are looking for a traditional marquee or an Arabian-style tent. Brightling Park can accommodate marquees for unlimited guest numbers, as there is ample space for whatever size marquee you choose and unlimited parking. There are also no time restrictions so if your party is in full flow there is no need to stop the fun.
